MISSIONARY WORK IN TURKEY

Many of the readers of the Press will remember Dr. and Mrs. Atkinson, of Harpoot, Turkey, who spent several months of their furlough in Campbell last winter. After leaving Campbell Dr. Atkinson took part in a general missionary campaign, and later took some special medical work before returning to his work in Turkey. Dr. Atkinson is located in Harpoot, in Eastern Turkey, about two weeks' journey from the recent trouble at Adana. His station was not in the scene of massacre, but escaped by a very narrow margin. The news came to Harpoot on a Wednesday noon of the overthrow of the old Sultan, and orders that the new regime would tolerate no further massacres. It soon developed that the following Friday morning had been officially set for general killing and burning of property, a bare day and a half margin. Dr. Atkinson was in this country at the time, raising funds for his new hospital, the laying of the corner stone of which is shown above. A part of the hospital will be completed this summer and will be used at once. It is situated in a fertile valley with many large villages around within half a day's ride to six days' distant. The official home of all the foreign Consuls is but a mile and half distant. It is a strategic situation and the need of medical work very great. Word has just been received that Dr. Atkinson finding on his return that the hospital could not be used this winter, after getting in a measure settled, started on a long medical tour of the country, entering new country where a doctor had not been. He took his pharmacist with him and was gone some weeks, returning in the midst of a blinding snow storm. With the completion of the new hospital great good will be possible. The Searchlight class of the Congregational Sunday school of this place have a memorial bed in this hospital, in memory of two of their number who have "Fallen Asleep." The Searchlight last year raised enough to support the bed for a year—$75.00—and hope to do so this year.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB HOLDS SPECIAL MEETING

The Improvement Club met in special session Monday evening to hear the report of the committee appointed to confer with the Interurban officials in regard to the proposed line down Campbell avenue. Mr. Thomas, chairman of the committee, reported that Mr. Chapin and Mr Schoup had called on him and talked over the possibilties of the desired extention of the line. The company is inclined to lay a track to the high school corner and run the freight cars down Campbell avenue so as to unload freight directly in front of the business houses, and also to give thirty-minute passenger service to the present station. The cars which now run but to Hamilton and Johnson corners would run through to the High School and make stops all along Campbell avenue. This proposition did not meet with the wishes of the club, as one of the principal ideas of the extension was to have all the Los Gatos cars run around by the high school so that the town would have the advertising and benefits derived from having tourists pass through the town. The company's officials did not see the way clear to adopt this change as the Los Gatos people are clamoring for shorter time to San Jose.

It was suggested that the cars which carry the business men back and forth morning and evening from Los Gatos to San Jose run over the present line and all other cars go over the new line. The committee was informed that the cost of the spur would be $6,000, and to continue the line down the Los Gatos road would amount to about $12,000. The general opinion of the members present was that the citizens of Campbell would not be willing to contribute financially unless the company would construct the entire line. The committee was left to make further investigation.

A communication was read from the County Promotion Committee, enclosing a petition to the Supervisors asking that they set aside a certain sum each month for advertising purposes in the county. This is in accordance with a new law passed by the Legislature allowing the County Supervisors to impose a tax of two cents on the $100, up to the sum of $10,000 per year, for advertising purposes. The petition was signed.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Cooper, Dick and Kennedy was appointed to act in conjunction with the Countrymen's Club committee, consisting of Messrs. Duncan, Farley and Whitman to look into the matter of forming a Library District.

Marysville.—Harry W. Vaughn was sentenced to serve fourteen years in San Quentin for attempting to kill his former sweetheart, Miss Cecilia Skehan.

Los Angeles.—Frank Ruiz, 9 years old, procured a revolver from his father's trunk and while playing with it, fired a bullet through his heart. He died instantly.

Petaluma.—The city now has possession of a large stone quarry. At its last meeting the board of city trustees leased the Conway quarries for a term of years and will use the product for street improvements.

San Rafael.—Hector Winters, the 12-year-old son of Andrew Winters of this place, died at his home here from lockjaw, after several days of intense suffering. While playing with a number of boy friends last week young Winters accidentally stepped on a rusty nail.

Los Angeles.—That the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad Company will be out of the transcontinental business at least a year was the announcement made last week by officials of that system following the completion of an investigation to determine the recent flood damage along the right of way.

Alvarado.—According to the figures of the Alameda Sugar Company, the crop of sugar beets in Washington township for the year 1909 was the biggest, with one exception, during the twenty-one years the company has been in operation. The yield per acre on the average was 15.5 tons. Many farmers raised from 23.7 to 30.13 tons per acre.

Venice, Cal.—What is pronounced by local scientists to be the jawbone of a mastodon was found on the Machado ranch three miles east of here. A. Machado, proprietor of the ranch, made the discovery and brought the relic to this city. Further excavations are being made near the spot in a large bed of gravel from which the huge bone was taken.

San Leandro.—The first steps toward holding a Cherry Festival in this city were taken at the last Chamber of Commerce meeting, when a resolution was passed formally announcing that a second carnival would be held in June of this year. The carnival of last year, when 25,000 people visited this city, proved such a success that it has been decided to make the event an annual one.

Dorris.—It is intended to hold a convention in Yreka some time prior to March 15th for the purpose of considering fully the proposed new State of Siskiyou, agitation for the formation of which has been growing during the past year. Southern Oregon people appear to be the most determined ones in this fight, although there is some little interest on the California side of the State line, too.

Santa Cruz.——By the incessant pounding of the waves for the last 60 years the face of the cliffs along the coast near Monterey bay have been washed away to the extent of 150 feet at some points. This fact was determined a few days ago by government engineers from the U. S. S. Explorer of the coast geodetic survey, who are making a resurvey in this section. The stations of the survey of 1850 are again being located.

San Francisco.—A new method of attempted suicide was introduced to the police when Florence McDonald, a waitress, charged with intoxication, attempted to end her life by swallowing her wedding ring and other jewelry while being taken to the city prison in the patrol wagon. The policeman saw the woman place the jewelry in her mouth, however, and had her taken to the central emergency hospital, where she was successfully treated.

TO TEACH HOMELESS BOYS SCIENCE OF SILK CULTURE

Youths' Directory Farm Headquarters of Industry in California.

San Francisco.—The Ladies' Silk Culture Society held an enthusiastic meeting last week. Rev. D. O. Crowley was present and took a hearty interest in the project for enlarging the possibilities of silk culture at Rutherford farm, the industrial tract of the Youths' Directory, which is under his direction. It was determined to plant an additional 350 mulberry trees at the farm this year, 300 having been set out there last year.

The additional planting, which will be done by the society, will make it possible for the work of silk culture at the farm to be begun next year, and from that time on a large number of boys will be trained each year in the science of silk culture and manufacture. It is planned to make Rutherford farm the headquarters of the industry in this State and to gradually extend its scope to other parts of the State by furnishing cocoons, mulberry slips and teachers who have been trained in the work at Rutherford to institutions desiring to take up the science.

Emma Ledoux Admits Guilt.

Stockton. — Mrs. Emma Ledoux, charged with the murder of Albert N. McVicar, entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to life imprisonment in San Quentin. This brings to an end for the present at least the famous trunk murder which for months was before the public. Albert N. McVicar's body was found in a trunk at the Southern Pacific depot March 24, 1906, and two days later Mrs. Ledoux was arrested at Antioch. She was brought back to Stockton and convicted of murder. She was sentenced to hang October 19, 1906, but appealed and secured a new trial, which was to begin February 4, 1910.

Harriman Money Not for Wall Street.

New York.—The millions left by E. H. Harriman are to be withdrawn gradually from Wall Street, according to a statement published here, and will be invested to a large extent in high class Manhattan realty. Mrs. Harriman's advisers, it is said, realize that without the hand of Harriman to guide and guard her interests in stocks there might easily be manipulation which would cause a large loss to the estate and might have a far-reaching effect on the financial interests of the country.

Mexico Cordial to U. S.

Los Angeles.—That a feeling of the greatest cordiality toward the United States exists in Mexico was the statement made by Henry W. Taft, brother of the President, who is here on a pleasure trip after a visit to the southern republic. Taft says that the recent Zelayan incident did not imperil the friendship of the two nations and that the entire Zelayan affair has been cleared up to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Funds for Steel Trust Fight.

New York.—The 5,000,000 members of labor and farmers' unions throughout the United States have been formally asked by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, to contribute 10 cents each to a fund to fight the steel trust. He says the unions are acting in self-defense and in protection of the American standards of life and of American institutions.

Gillett's Withdrawal Clarifies Political Atmosphere

San Francisco.—Politicians and others who have been maintaining that Secretary of State Charles F. Curry would be the next Republican nominee for Governor now feel certain they will see their predictions come to pass. Months ago they prophesied that Gillett would decline to be a candidate. That they had some grounds for making such a prediction was demonstrated last Saturday when the Governor formerly notified the Republican State Central Committee that he would not be a candidate for re-election. There is an "I-told-you-so" sentiment in their discussions of the political atmosphere, and a perfect sanguineness in the outcome of their prophecies of future events. There are other candidates, it is true, but not one, they say, can boast of the support Curry is sure of. From one end of the State to the other there has been a quiet, but persistent advocacy of Curry. This is not due to any effort of "machine" or "organization." It began, they say, like a ripple on a placid lake and spread in ever-widening circles. Now it seems to have reached the proportions of a wave. The farmers, the workingmen, the merchants and the rest of the rank and file whose votes at the primary in August will decide who shall be the party's nominee, are of the opinion, they say, that if Curry made such an efficient Secretary, he certainly will make a good Governor, and one who will look after the interests of the taxpayers. They point to the fact that his long experience in the office of Secretary of State and as a member of various State commissions has given him a familiarity with the numerous departments of State and a knowledge of the needs of the taxpayers such as is not, and can not, be possessed by any of the other candidates. The foregoing is the gist of the talk among those in the inner circles who keep their fingers on the public pulse.

"I am glad to hear that Governor Gillett is not going to seek re-election," said Secretary Curry when informed of Gillett's withdrawal. "At the same time, I have thought all the time that he would not run again. He has made a good governor. I am sure now of the nomination and election. The campaign my friends have mapped out for me will be followed.

"As the next governor I will do some good for the people and our institutions, but I will be neither a sectional nor faction candidate. I am not worrying as to who will be my opponent in the race.

"In practically every town of any size," said Curry, "a club has been formed to help me in the fight. In San Francisco and Los Angeles the commercial men have joined to support me. I am not a sectional candidate. For some time I shall remain in Sacramento, attending to the duties of my office, as I believe I am well enough known throughout the State to leave my candidacy to my friends."

Among the others who have been mentioned as desiring the nomination are John L. McNab, attorney, of Ukiah; Charles Belshaw of Antioch, former State Senator; Frank K. Mott, Mayor of Oakland; Phil A. Stanton, ex-Speaker of the Assembly; Harold Power of Placer; A. E. Forbes of Marysville.

In the Democratic ranks Francis J. Heney is mentioned as a candidate. Heney is now in Oregon in connection with the land fraud cases. The Oregonian says that, according to private telegrams received in that city it is known that the name of Heney will be presented for the Governorship of California at the next primaries held in that State. The Oregonian has it that Heney will neither deny nor confirm the report that he is seeking the nomination for Governor.

When a reporter asked Heney the question direct, he smiled and denied that he is an aspirant for the Governorship of California.

"Yes," he admitted, "I have received messages from San Francisco regarding the political situation down there, but I have nothing to talk about. I don't want any more politics."

Glavis Charges Ballinger With Specific Offenses

Washington.—No one is willing to hazard a guess as to the length of time that will be consumed by the Ballinger-Pinchot Congressional inquiry. Witnesses will probably be brought from Seattle and other points in the west, and office records may have to be obtained from Juneau, Alaska. One committeeman declared that at the rate of progress set at the first session it will take 19 years to complete the inquiry.

The inquiry began with Louis R. Glavis, chief accuser of Secretary Ballinger, on the witness stand. As a result of many interruptions and the final decision of the committee to insist that Glavis' counsel make an opening statement of the specific charges against Ballinger, the witness did not get far in his narrative. Special counsel for Glavis, Louis D. Branders, summed up the "case for the prosecution" in this way:

"That, prior to entering the Government service in any capacity, R. A. Ballinger acted as attorney in drawing up an agreement to escrow and deeds in the Wilson Coal Company cases in Lewis County, Washington; these cases being an alleged fraud upon the land laws. Mr. Ballinger's name did not appear in court records of the case.

"That Mr. Ballinger, as Commissioner of the Land Office in 1907, did not show due diligence in investigating alleged frauds connected with the Cunningham coal lands in Alaska; that he had knowledge of all circumstances surrounding these claims, and, in spite of this, entered the employ of one of the claimants after leaving the Land Office and before becoming Secretary of the Interior; that he ordered these claims to be 'clear listed' for patent without due investigation, and that they would have gone to patent if Glavis and others had not intervened."

"It is not any one act, but a series of acts and circumstances," declared Mr. Branders, adding that it was for the committee to determine whether the lands "that should be held for the benefit of the people and of posterity are in safe hands."

Senators Nelson, Root and Sutherland and Representatives Olmstead and Madison were the more active of the committeemen in plying the witness and his attorney with questions. Many times they referred to Secretary Ballinger's denials and sought explanation of what they considered discrepancies in statements.

In beginning Glavis made the additional charge against Secretary Ballinger that before entering the government service he had acted as counsel in the Wilson coal company cases in the State of Washington by drawing up an escrow agreement and deeds for alleged fraudulent claimants. Glavis laid emphasis on the fact that Ballinger's name had been omitted from all records in the case, and that the claimants appeared only "by attorney."

Dr. Wiley Uses Salt Water to Find Age of Eggs

Washington.—It is easily possible to tell the difference between a fresh egg and a cold storage egg without breaking the shell, Dr. Wiley, government chemist, testified at the "high cost of living" hearing. Dr. Wiley brought with him a large number of fresh eggs and also some of the cold storage variety. Dropping them into a large vessel of water containing a 10 per cent salt solution, the fresh eggs immediately sank to the bottom and the refrigerated ones floated on the surface.

Would Prohibit Sale of Horse Meat.

Chicago.—In an official report to the Illinois State Food Commission, Inspector Hoey says that horses are being slaughtered by wholesale in Chicago and that the meat is being sold and distributed for human consumption. The meat, he says, is being cut into roasts, steaks and sausages and is being sold to free lunch venders in Chicago and to some farming districts and mining camps.

Lost Her Life to Save Pet Dog.

San Bernardino—Mrs. J. McDaniels, mother of "Montana Kid," a prize-fighter, was instantly killed at Hesperia, a desert station on the Santa Fe, east of here, when she ran on the tracks to save the life of a pet dog and was struck by the speeding engine. Mr. and Mrs. McDaniels were returning from a journey by wagon to Imperial Valley and had camped for the night near the depot at Hesperia.

BUSY LITTLE BEE YIELDS OWNER HANDSOME PROFIT

Keeper of Largest Apiary on Coast Plans to Increase Honey Output.

Woodland.—Chas. Edson of Knights Landing embarked in the honey business on a small scale a few years ago and today has probably the largest apiary in California, which means on the Pacific Coast, keeping between 3000 and 4000 hives. Last season he harvested 192 tons of honey and thirteen tons of beeswax, selling the honey at from 4 to 5 cents per pound and the wax at 28 cents. During the coming season he expects to harvest 500 tons of honey and twenty to thirty tons of wax.

Edson's home apiary is on the Sacramento river above Knights Landing, but he has smaller ones in a number of other places. Recently he shipped three carloads of hives to Palermo, where the bees may gather sweets from the orange blossoms. Later he will establish hives in Nevada and take honey from the sagebrush. Other camps of hives are for the present established at points along the Sacramento river and Cache creek, where the bees gather sweets from tule grass, clover and willow.

Snake's Venom for White Plague.

Stockton.—After three weeks' use of venom from rattlesnakes, in treatment for tuberculosis of the lungs in a Lodi case that was in its last stages, Dr. Hull of Stockton reported some improvement of the patient, who is a son of Supervisor Newton. The poison treatment is given after a formula recommended by eastern physicians who have tested it. In the Lodi case the young man is reported as freed from night sweats and stimulated by the venom, which is encouraging, though a permanent cure is hardly looked for. The venom is used in a prepared form after treatment in a laboratory.

Sacramento May Have Aeroplane Plant

Sacramento. — The Sacramento Chamber of Commerce, with several influential citizens of this city, is making an effort to induce the Curtiss-Herring Aeroplane Company of Hammondsport, New York, to locate its factory in Sacramento or vicinity. The company in which Glenn H. Curtiss, the aviator, is the moving spirit, has written to this city for offers, and led by George W. Peltier a committee has secured a site southeast of the city limits which will be offered to the manufacturers of flying machines.

Law-Breakers Must Go to Church.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Indianapolis saloon-keepers who violate the closing laws hereafter will be compelled to keep their saloons closed until they can produce a letter from a minister certifying that they have attended church Sunday morning and remained throughout the service. Such was the ruling of Mayor Samuel Lewis Shank in two cases before him, and so, he announced, he will deal with other violators.

More Pay for School Teachers.

Chicago.—A sweeping advance in the salaries of public school teachers in Chicago was voted by the Board of Education last week. The increase, which is in effect from January 1, 1910, will mean the disbursement of $240,000 a year more for salaries than last year among the 6,000 teachers. The lowest salary is $650, and is paid to teachers for their first year's work in the primary grades.

Glutton Chokes to Death.

Pittsburg.—A dozen foreigners discussed the meat boycott at breakfast in a boarding house Sunday morning and all except "Mic" Skovlac agreed to eat no meat. Skovlac, delighted with having the breakfast steak to himself, attacked it so vigorously that he choked to death with the first mouthful.

Lodi Banishes Dairies.

"It's an Ill Wind."

Some time ago there was a flood in British Columbia. An old fellow who had lost nearly everything he possessed was sitting on the roof of his house as it floated along when a boat approached.

"Hello, John!"

"Hello, Dave!"

"Are your fowls all washed away, John?"

"Yes, but the ducks can swim," replied the old man.

"Apple trees gone?"

"Well, they said the crop would be a failure, anyhow."

"I see the flood's away above your window."

"That's all right, Dave. Them winders needed washin', anyhow."—Pearson's Weekly.

DIAMONDS THAT DO NOT COME FROM MINES

New Process of Hardening Carbon Produces Gems of Wonderful Brilliancy.

John C. Davidson, a San Francisco Genius, Secures the Pacific Coast Rights of New Sapph-Diamond.

By the intelligent use of chemicals, and the perfect control of heat of nearly volcanic intensity, science is at last able to control the explosive process requisite in hardening pure carbon.

The newly invented product stands a wonderful test of over 9 points in hardness, or less than one single point to that of the real genuine diamond, which is 10 in point of hardness.

The new sapph-diamond, on account of its wonderful hardness and lustre, makes it absolutely necessary for it to be facet cut with regular diamond cutting machinery, using carborundum and diamond dust, at the world's most famous stone cutting plant at Amsterdam, Holland.

For science to ever improve on this wonderful masterpiece of handicraft, it would indeed seem necessary to manufacture diamonds as perfect as nature produces them from mother earth.

This newly invented gem cannot be procured as cheaply as the many inferior substitues heretofore known, but can be sold at about 7 per cent of the present quotations on real diamonds.

Virtues of Orange Sandwich.

"If only I had known sooner about that little trick of the orange sandwich for giving castor oil to children, how many awful struggles both the baby and I would have been saved," said a mother who had been told by the doctor to give her baby this unpalatable medicine.

The orange sandwich is simply a small quantity of orange juice put into a spoon with the needed amount of oil added and over that enough orange juice to cover the oil. This is an excellent method for taking either castor or olive oil. It has been recommended several times, but is such a really valuable discovery for mothers that it is repeated for the benefit of the few who have not tried it and who still look forward to a scene every time such a dose must be given.

Some Satisfaction.

Safe in his mountain retreat, the train robber opened the bag of coin he had secured at the cost of so much trouble and danger.

It contained nothing but Lincoln pennies.

"Well," he said, as he took one of them between his thumb and finger and gazed at the rugged profile on the coin, "I never voted fur 'im, an' I'm durned glad of it now!"

All Who Would Enjoy

good health, with its blessings, must understand, quite clearly, that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to living aright. Then the use of medicines may be dispensed with to advantage, but under ordinary conditions in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time and the California Fig Syrup Co. holds that it is alike important to present the subject truthfully and to supply the one perfect laxative to those desiring it.

Consequently, the Company's Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna gives general satisfaction. To get its beneficial effects buy the genuine, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and for sale by all leading druggists.

President Lincoln's Dream.

Inquiry had been made as to army news on the first meeting of the cabinet and especially if any information had been received from Sherman, says Gideon Welles in his dairy, according to the Atlantic. None of the members had heard anything and Stanton, who makes it a point to be late and who has the telegraph in his department, had not arrived. Gen. Grant, who was present, said he was hourly expecting word. The president remarked it would be had, no doubt, come soon, and come favorable, for he had last night the usual dream which he had preceding nearly every great and important event of the war. Generally the news had been favorable which succeeded this dream and the dream itself was always the same. I inquired what this remarkable dream could be. He said it related to your (my) element—the water—that he seemed to be in some singular indescribable vessel and that he was moving with great rapidity toward an indefinite shore. That he had this dream preceding Sumter, Bull Run, Antietam, Gettysburg, Stone River, Vicksburg, Wilmington, etc. Gen. Grant said Stone River was certainly no victory, and he knew of no great results which followed from it. The president said (that) however that might be, his dream preceded that fight.

"I had," the president remarked, "this strange dream again last night, and we shall, judging from the past, have great news very soon. I think it must be from Sherman. My thoughts are in that direction, as are most of yours."

I write this conversation three days after it occurred in consequence of what took place Friday night and but for which the mention of this dream would probably have never been noted. Great events did, indeed, follow, for within a few hours the good and gentle, as well as truly great man who narrated his dream closed forever his earthly career.

A Retiary.

A retiary was the name of a Roman gladiator armed in a peculiar way. He was furnished with a trident and net, with no more covering than a short tunic, and with these implements he endeavored to entangle and dispatch his adversary, who was called a secutor (from sequi, to follow) and was armed with a helmet, a shield and a sword. The name of the first is pronounced as if spelled re-shi-a-ry, the accent on the first syllable.

"WE"— Who, Why, What?

The readers of this insignificant little sheet may be curious to know who "we" are, why we are here, and what we propose to do with them during the coming weeks—and years.

Five years ago the writer sailed into the Golden Gate and the next day took a train to the Garden City. Being interested in newspapers we visited the Y. M. C. A. reading room and was attracted by a little eight-page publication of an unusual character,—something quite different from the ordinary village "tattler." Printed on good book paper with the outer sheet of highly coated buff enamel, we thought it must come from a community where the people were a little better than the ordinary. Upon visiting the editor in his sanctum we found him in need of a little assistance, and the next day took a position at the cases.

We were not disappointed with the people of Campbell; and now, after four years of residence elsewhere about the county, return to our first love. The warm handshakes and hearty greetings make us glad we are here. In looking over the subscription list we fail to find some familiar names. A few have saved us a personal call and have come in and said, "Put my name on the list." That makes us tickled all over. There are others, however, whom we will attend to in the near future. In fact, we expect to visit every home in Campbell and surrounding territory and give everyone a chance to help run this paper. One man can't run a newspaper, nor can a newspaper in such a small town afford to have a single individual trying to run the editor out of town. Therefore, you need not be afraid that we will attempt to pick a quarrel with you. Our policy might be stated in these words of Abraham Lincoln:

"I like to see a man proud of the place where he lives. I like to see a man who lives in it so that his place will be proud of him. Be honest, but hate no one; overturn a man's wrongdoing, but do not overturn him unless it must be done in overturning the wrong. Stand with anybody that stands right. Stand with him while he is right, and part with him when he goes wrong."

We are here: because overworked eyes would not permit us to stay where we were; because it is a desirable place in which to live; because we like the class of people; because we believe there is a prosperous future for the town; and, last, but not least, because we believe that we can build up a little newspaper that you will not be ashamed of. Not at once, however, as we are seriously handicapped in several ways.

We propose to place the Press in every home in and about Campbell; we propose to have every business and professional man represented in our advertising columns; we propose to handle all the job printing of Campbell. How will we do all this? By endeavoring to show ourselves capable and worthy.

Not Quite "Type High"

Our predecessor may boast of being the youngest editor in the county, but he is not the smallest, by any means. I guess we can claim that distinction. Not being quite "type high" we find it rather difficult to make our "face" "line up" at the case, and usually are obliged to use a plate box for "underlay." if there is an unfortunate in the county less than five picas and two points high we would like to make his acquaintance.

Improving on Euclid.

The Pioneer of Allahabad tells stories of some "kindergarten" classes in the English army. Among the definitions given in an examination is one of a circle peculiarly happy, which gives a freshness to Euclid. It is, "A straight line which starts at a certain point and gets back to the same point as quickly as possible."

Smallest Devilfish

Long Beach, Jan. 22nd.—Every one has heard about "the largest devilfish," but it remained for Clarence Owen of this city to bring out of the water the smallest devilfish. This interesting specimen was found last night in a bass trap. The "little devil" could rest in the palm of a child's hand, and only the tips of one or two tentacles would protrude over the edge of the hand. The young creature is reddish in color. Efforts are being made to prolong its life, the fisherman being in hopes he can raise the small octopus to the size of the monster, ten feet from tip to tip, which was caught here two years ago, and occupies a beg jar at the pied market, where it rests in a preserving fluid.

Judging from the above, which was taken from the Mercury, the octopus is not often caught. The editor of the Press has two small specimens which he captured at Pacific Grove during very low tide last summer. They can be seen at this office.

Your Chances.

The little chances linger and return, but the great chances come and go and never come again. If we could look back over the lives of the people by whom we are surrounded, how many great and rich opportunities would we see that they have permitted to drift by them unimproved!
